Are there brownfield sites in your neighborhood?

Do you pass by vacant lots, dilapidated buildings, or closed businesses, such as gas stations, old manufacturing plants, or boarded up storefronts? Are there “eyesores” in your community that you’d like to see cleaned up?

If the answer is yes, chances are these properties are “brownfield” sites . . . Brownfield sites come in all shapes and sizes and may include:

- Former manufacturing & industrial sites (e.g. shuttered mills & factories, old shipyards, former canneries, old tank farms, etc.)
- Vacant or underutilized commercial facilities (e.g. aging strip malls, warehouses, etc.)
- Former gas stations & auto-related businesses
- Old railyards & truck depots
- Former dry cleaners
- Old buildings with asbestos, lead paint or other regulated materials
- Salvage yards, landfills & unpermitted dump sites
- Boarded up & abandoned buildings
